Article I National Taipei University of Technology (hereinafter referred to as “Taipei Tech” or “NTUT”) International Graduate Student Scholarship (hereinafter referred to as “scholarship”) was established for the purpose of campus internationalization by attracting outstanding graduate students to study at Taipei Tech. The following articles provide guidelines for the administration of the scholarship.

Article II Eligibility:

- A. First year graduate students: International students who hold bachelor’s or master’s degrees from universities abroad may apply for a one-year scholarship when applying to become a full-time graduate degree program student at Taipei Tech. Applicants must submit all the documents required to complete an application for admission, including the application forms, official transcripts of the highest university degree attained, letters of recommendation, and an official language proficiency test score (TOEFL or its equivalent).
- B. Current graduate students: Current graduate students at Taipei Tech may apply for (the renewal of) a one-year scholarship for the following year of their graduate study by submitting the previous year’s transcript, a report or excerpts of their research output, and a letter of recommendation from their academic advisor.
- C. The following international graduate students may not apply for the scholarship:
 - 1) Students who are already receiving other forms of financial aid from the R.O.C. government or Taipei Tech (exceptions to this regulation include research stipends or work-study payments, and financial provided under special agreements signed with Taipei Tech).
 - 2) Students who are engaged in full-time paid employment in the R.O.C.

Article III Source of funding of the scholarship:

This scholarship is mainly funded by Taipei Tech's endowment, and partly grants from the project(s).

Article IV The yearly quota at each college for this scholarship will be allocated based on the approval of the Administrative Council at Executive Meetings.

Article V Types of Scholarship Awards

The type of scholarship to be awarded will be determined by NTUT Scholarship Commission.

A. One-year Stipend

1) Qualification & Duration of the scholarship:

Available to doctoral students only. The scholarship is renewable on a yearly basis for a maximum of 4 years (subject to the approval of the NTUT Scholarship Commission).

2) Definition:

The journal paper mentioned below must be indexed in SCI, SSCI, A&HCI, or ABI in which the applicant is the first author (besides the supervisor). All applicants shall submit one photocopy of the published paper, or proof of acceptance from the journal's publisher.

3) Criteria for application & amount of the scholarship:

a. 1st year of doctoral study

Scholarship applications for the first year doctoral students are evaluated during the application period and the scholarship awards will be given to selected candidates who are admitted to study at Taipei Tech. Each of the scholarship recipients will receive 144,000NTD (12,000NTD × 12 months).

b. 2nd year of doctoral study

Applicants must have successfully completed one academic year of study with a final grade of 80 or above (or a 4.0 GPA). In addition, the applicants must have presented at least one international conference paper or a journal paper; however, the journal paper cannot be reused for the application of the 3rd or 4th year scholarship application. Each scholarship recipient will be awarded 144,000NTD (12,000NTD × 12 months).

c. 3rd year of doctoral study

All applicants must have completed the previous year of study in Taipei Tech. Applicants are also required to submit at least one journal paper. Each scholarship recipient will be awarded 144,000NTD (12,000NTD × 12 months).

d. 4th year of doctoral study

All applicants must have completed the previous year of study in Taipei Tech. Applicants are required to submit one additional journal paper, apart from the one used in the 3rd year scholarship application. Each scholarship recipient will be awarded 144,000NTD (12,000NTD × 12 months). If only one journal paper is submitted, the applicant will received 96,000NTD (8,000NTD x 12 months).

- 4) Depending on availability, additional financial support of up to 72,000NTD (6,000NTD × 12 months) may be arranged through his/her supervisor.

B. Tuition waiver for 1 academic year

- 1) Available to master's and doctoral students.
- 2) Tuition waiver excludes dormitory, books, and insurance fees.
- 3) Scholarship value: 1 year (two continuous semesters) tuition waiver for master's and doctoral students.
- 4) Criteria for application:
 - a. Scholarship applications from the first year doctoral students are evaluated during the application period and the scholarship awards will be given to selected candidates who are admitted to study at Taipei Tech. The tuition fee of 2 semester, about 120,000NTD, will be waived for the scholarship recipients.
 - b. Applicants must be currently enrolled at Taipei Tech, and must submit the transcript of the previous academic year with a final grade of 80 or above (or a 4.0 GPA). The tuition fee of 2 semester, about 120,000NTD, will be waived for the scholarship recipients.
 - c. Doctoral students who apply for the 3rd or 4th year scholarship must submit one journal paper.

 - 2) If the student takes leave of absence, or is expelled from the university.
 - 3) If the student gives up his or her pursuit of study without undergoing the formal procedures for withdrawal or leave of absence.
 - 4) If the student fails to complete his or her registration at the stipulated time for the academic year.
 - 5) If the student leaves Taiwan for over a month during a semester.
 - 6) If the student's faculty advisor, department or institute, the Office of Academic Affairs, or any other university administrative office confirms that the student's academic performance is below the required academic standards.

- 7) If the student seriously violates R.O.C. laws.
- 8) If the student receives more than one minor demerit and in consequence, the NTUT Scholarship Commission decides to revoke the student's scholarship.

B. Resumption of scholarship

- 1) Scholarship payment will be discontinued immediately in the following month after the award candidate takes a leave of absence, graduates, or withdraws from Taipei Tech. Award candidates who have undergone the procedures for taking a leave of absence shall file for resumption of the Scholarship within the stipulated time after resuming their studies at Taipei Tech.
- 2) The scholarship will be revoked and terminated immediately in the following month after a recipient has graduated or been expelled from Taipei Tech.

Article VII Application Period

- A. First year international graduate students may apply for a one-year International Graduate Student Scholarship when applying to become a full-time graduate degree program student at Taipei Tech.
- B. Current international graduate students may apply for (the renewal of) a one-year International Graduate Student Scholarship in the following year prior to the expiration of the current scholarship. The period of application differs annually and application shall be completed before the announced deadline.

Article VIII Evaluation Process

- A. First-Year international graduate students: Scholarship applications are evaluated during the application period.
- B. Current International graduate students:
 - 1) The applicant shall submit one transcript of the previous academic year, one recommendation letter from the advisor, and other relevant documents, such as award certificates, copies of published papers, etc.
 - 2) All applications shall be reviewed by the NTUT Scholarship Commission.

Article IX Recipients shall sign one declaration agreeing that if any of the information or documentation that they provided in applying for admission or financial aid is found to be false or forged, the recipients' eligibility will be terminated immediately, and the recipients subject to punishment under the relevant university regulations, and be required to return the scholarship payment already received.

Article X Scholarship recipients can apply for fees deduction from scholarship payments if they are experiencing financial difficulties. If the application is accepted, the tuition fees, including insurance and dormitory fees, will be deducted from the scholarship payments. The amount remaining after deduction will be returned to the recipients.

Article XI International doctoral students who have demonstrated outstanding performance in their research can submit relevant proofs and documents for the reference and discussion by the NTUT Scholarship Commission. Upon agreement by the members of the NTUT Scholarship Commission and approval by the president of Taipei Tech, additional quota for tuition waiver might be granted plus a maximum 12,000NTD stipend every month, for a maximum of 12 months to approved award candidates.

Article XII These guidelines shall go into effect upon approval by the Administrative Council at Executive Meetings. The procedure is the same for any revision or amendment.
