THE UNIVERSITY

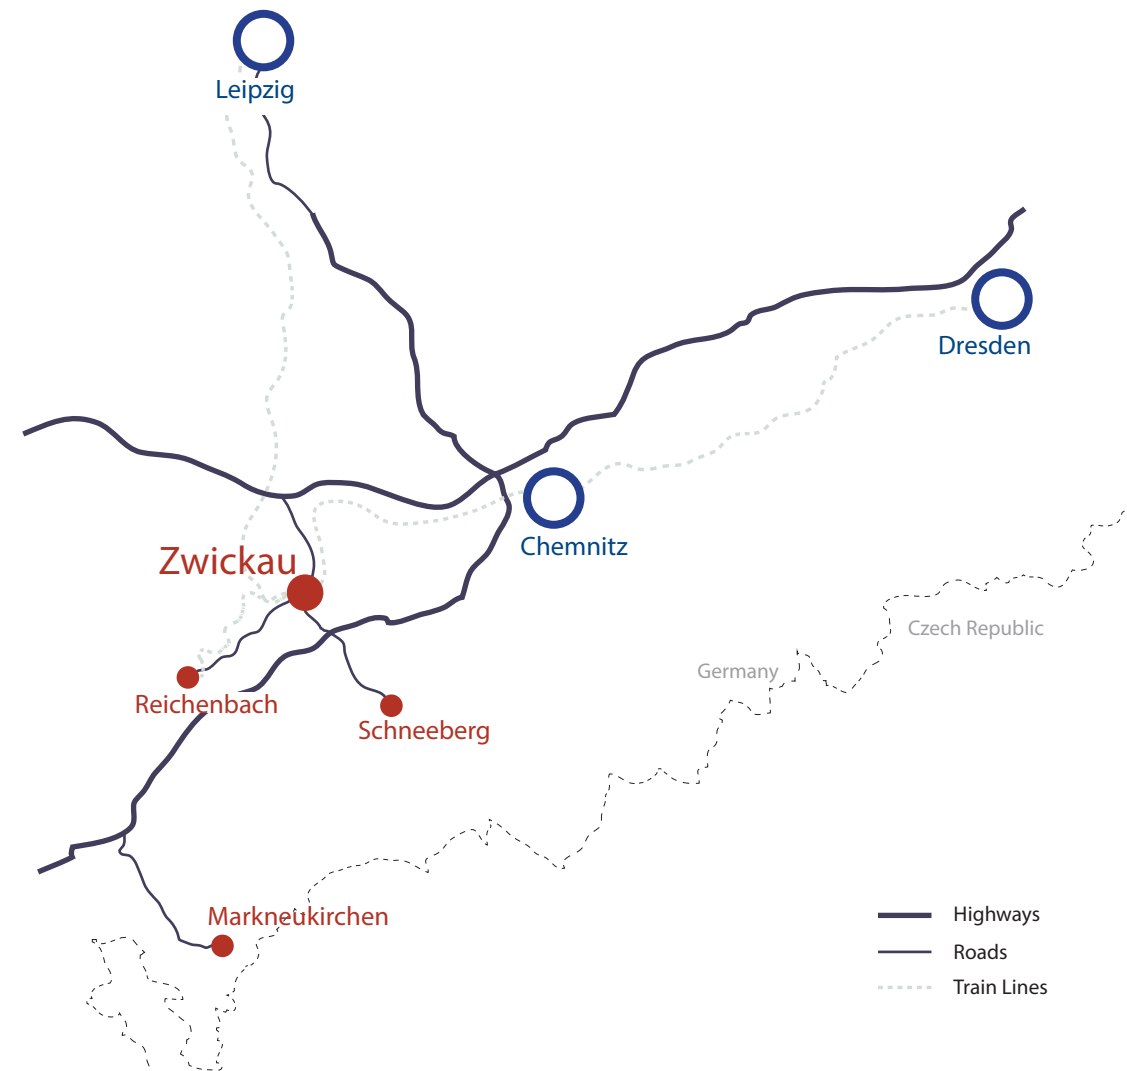

At the Westsächsische Hochschule Zwickau (WHZ), which also includes the campuses in Schneeberg, Markneukirchen and Reichenbach, about 5000 students study engineering, business and life quality. The strong influence and tradition of car manufacturing in West Saxony is reflected in the curriculum of the 55 study programmes, making it an appealing place to study and earn a degree. Additionally, the WHZ offers particular degree programmes such as sign language interpretation and musical instrument construction.

Our Campuses

Depending on your chosen programme, campuses are located in Zwickau, Schneeberg, Reichenbach and Markneukirchen. In Zwickau there are two campuses: the City Centre Campus on Dr.-Friedrichs-Ring and the Scheffelstraße Campus on Scheffelberg, a 10-minute tram ride from the city centre.

REGIONAL ATTRACTIONS

Reichenbach

Schneeberg

Markneukirchen

Zwickau

The city on the Mulde River is famous for its long tradition in the automotive industry and for the composers Robert Schumann and Clara Wieck. Shops and restaurants in the historical city centre provides an ideal place for shopping and leisure. With 90000 inhabitants, Zwickau is the fourth largest city in Saxony.

Located 20km west of Zwickau, the town of Reichenbach has always been a centre for studying textile engineering. It is one of the oldest and largest locations for the study of textile engineering in Germany.

The small town Schneeberg is nestled in the Erzgebirge, 20km south of Zwickau. Mining and handcrafted work have always played a major role in the town's history.

The town Markneukirchen has been renowned for musical instrument making since 1677. Tucked away on the Czech border, the Merz Villa is an idyllic place to study and build instruments.

DAY TRIPS

Pöhl Dam

www.talsperre-poehl.de

A great place for outdoor enthusiasts! At the Pöhl you can hike, bike, swim, climb or simply relax on the lakeshore. Discover the landscape and natural wonders in the „Vogtländische Schweiz“. Activities: Steamboat, outdoor swimming pool, forest climbing park, minigolf, boat rental.

Miniwelt Lichtenstein

www.miniwelt.de

The world in miniature can be found at Lichtenstein's Miniwelt. Notable architecture from antiquity to the present are presented at a scale of 1:25.

Baroque city of Dresden

www.dresden.de

Located on the Elbe River, Dresden, the capital city and political centre of Saxony, is internationally recognized for its beautiful Baroque architecture. The Frauenkirche, the Semperoper and the Zwinger are a few sights that should not be missed.

Leipzig

www.leipzig.de

Shaped by art and culture and influenced by Goethe and Lessing, the special flair of Leipzig definitely makes a visit worthwhile. With the Leipzig Book Fair in March, the Wave and Gothic Festival at Pentecost or simply a visit to the zoo, there is always something to see and do in this vibrant city.

Saxon Switzerland and Königstein Fortress

www.saechsische-schweiz.de www.festung-koenigstein.de

Spanning both sides of the Elbe River between the Czech city of Děčín and Saxony's Pirna, the rocky landscape of Saxon Switzerland offer visitors spectacular views. Hike to the top of the Lilienstein, enjoy the open air theatre in Rathen or visit the largest mountain fortress in Europe, the Königstein Fortress.
